Downloaded From: https://textbooksall.blogspot.com/

STD 8 SOCIAL SCIENCE

SURE A PLUS NOTES

INVASION AND RESISTANCE

1.Reasons that led to the discovery of an eastward sea route from Europe by the end of the fifteenth century?

- Technological advances in European shipbuilding and sailing
- Growth in knowledge about geography
- Advances made in compass and map making
- Travel writings by voyagers provided knowledge about new territories and their wealth

2.Analyse the Voyage of the Portuguese to India

$ Vasco da Gama's 1498 arrival in Kozhikode marked the beginning of European dominance in India.

$ Initially, the ruling Zamorin refused to grant the Portuguese a trade monopoly or expel the established Arab merchants.

$ This resistance led da Gama to secure trading rights from the Kolathiri king of Kannur instead.

$ The immense profitability of da Gama's first voyage,returning with goods worth sixty times his costs—sparked further Portuguese expeditions.

$ However, the refusal of the Zamorin to yield trade exclusivity resulted in prolonged conflict.

$ The Portuguese faced their most significant military challenge from the Kunjali Marakkars, the Zamorin's naval chiefs; following their era, Portuguese maritime influence faced little domestic resistance.

3.Tabulate the impact of Portuguese contact in India (Third Term Exam)

Political field	The first European Fort in India (Fort Manuel), was established in Kochi . The regions of Kochi, Goa, and Daman and Diu came under the rule of the Portuguese . Training was given in war tactics and European weapons
Agriculture sector	Cashew tree (parangi mavu), papaya, guava (perakka) and pineápple were introduced
Knowledge sector	Printing technology was popularised . Christian religious education centres were started
Cultural sector	Art forms such as Chavittunatakam and Margamkali were popularised . European style of construction was started

4.Compare the Battle of Colachel and the Carnatic Wars and write your conclusions.(First Term Model Qn Paper)

Battle of Colachel(Colachel War)- In 1741, Marthandavarma who ruled Travancore clashed with the Dutch at Colachel.

STD VIII SURE A PLUS NOTES

Downloaded From: https://textbooksall.blogspot.com/

The Dutch lost their supremacy .
The first battle in which a European power lost to an Indian ruler.
Carnatic Wars-The wars fought between the British and the French in India
These battles took place in the Carnatic region which included a major portion of the present- day Tamil Nadu and the coastal areas of Southern Andhra Pradesh.
There were three Carnatic Wars

5. Give a brief account on Hortus Malabaricus

$ Information about seven hundred and forty-two medicinal plants of Kerala. $ Hendrik-van Rheed, the Dutch governor was the compiler of this work.
$ Itti Achuthanhelped him in this composition .
$ Appu Bhat, Ranga Bhat and Vinayaka Bhat also contributed to the composition .
$ Hortus Malabaricus was the first book to be printed with some Malayalam words.
$ This work was translated into Malayalam and English by Dr. K. S. Manilal.

6.Evaluate the role of the Battles of Plassey and Buxar in laying the foundation of British rule in India.

Battle of Plassey- . (First Term Model Qn Paper)

@The Nawab of Bengal, Siraj-ud-Daulah was defeated East India Company led by Robert Clive.
@ The conquest of Bengal helped the British to bring other parts of India under their control.
@ Land taxes in agriculturally rich Bengal helped the British build up their military power and raise money to conquer the rest of the country.
@ The British established political dominance in India with the Battle of Plassey in 1757

Battle of Buxar 1764- (First Term Model Qn Paper)

@ Company acquired the right to collect taxes in the provinces of Bihar, Bengal and Orissa. @ East India Company's administrative presence in India became stronger.
@ The British defeated the combined forces of the Mughal ruler Shah Alam II, the Nawab of Oudh, Shuja-ud-Daulah and the Nawab of Bengal, Mir Qasim in this battle.

7."Send me two thousand soldiers, I will conquer India"- Robert Clive.Why does he commented like this?

- Disunity among Indian princely states
- Military and technological supremacy of the British.
- To establish political power in India.Economic exploitation

8.Compare and make a table on Tax Policies Implemented by the British (Third Term Model Qn Paper)

Permanent Land Revenue Settlement (1793)	◎ Bengal ,Bihar ,Orissa--Lord Cornwallis--the zamindars who were the landlords collected high taxes on behalf of the British ◎ Farmers were required to pay a fixed amount as tax regardless of fluctuations in yield.
Ryotwari System (1820)	◎South India, Deccan--Thomas Munro, Alexander Reed ◎Peasants were considered as landlords . ◎ The British collected taxes directly from the farmers . ◎The British seized the land of farmers who failed to pay taxes.

STD VII SURE A PLUS NOTES

Downloaded From: https://textbooksall.blogspot.com/

Mahalwari System (1822)	◎North India, Central India, Punjab--Holt Mackenzie ◎The village was treated as a unit and tax was collected ◎ The village which defaulted in tax payment was annexed to British India.

9.General features of the taxation systems implemented by the British-

➢ Higher tax rate . ➢ Collected taxes directly from the farmers .➢ Seized the land of farmers who failed to pay taxes.

10.How the British tax policies affected farmers of India? (First Term Exam)

Farmers found it difficult to pay the high taxes even.

If crops were damaged due to flood or drought, there was no tax relief.

Farmers had to rely on moneylenders to avoid losing their farmland.

Debt-ridden farmers lost their land.

11.Discuss and prepare a note on how the economic policies of the British affected the farmers and artisans.

> Machine-made products from Britain were imported into India.

> Due to the competition with such products, the market for handicraft products such as cotton- silk-wool clothes, pottery, leather and edible oil was lost.

> This led to the loss of employment for those engaged in handicrafts.

> Many were forced to give up their traditional occupations.

12.Briefly explain Sannyasi-Fakir Rebellion

< The East India company made no effort to solve the problem of famine in Bengal.

< Hence the poor peasants and labourers fought against the British and this revolt was supported by the sannyasies.

< So , these are known as Sannyasi Rebellion.

< Along with sannyasies the Fakirs also join the revolt against the British and so, this revolt is also called the Sannyasi-Fakir Rebellion.

< Bhavani Pathak and Manju Shah led the Sannyasi- Fakir Rebellion.

13.Circumstances that led to the The Neelam Peasant Revolt (1859) in Bengal (First Term Exam)

@ The British planters (indigo planters) forced the farmers to cultivate the indigo plant (Amari plant) for the factories established in the villages

@ Indigo produced from the Amari plant could be sold only to the British

@ The British paid less than the market price for the indigo to the farmers

@ It led to severe food shortage, exploitation and economic hardship With the discovery of artificial dyes, the demand for indigo decreased and poverty increased.

@ The peasants turned to the path of agitation against the British.

@ Digambar Biswas and Vishnu Biswas .

@ Farmers abandoned their indigo cultivation.

@ Indigo factories were then attacked.

14.Write a short note on Santhal Rebellion 1855

* Santhals are a tribal people who migrated to the Rajmahal hills in Bengal province in the eighteenth century.

STD VII SURE A PLUS NOTES

Downloaded From: https://textbooksall.blogspot.com/

* Landlords unjustly extorted, and usurers lent money and snatched their grain and forest resources in exchange.
* All this was done with the support of the British.
* The British increase tax revenue.
*Sidhu and Kanhu led it

15.Analyse the causes of Munda Rebellion 1899 (First Term Exam)

• British colonial exploitation and land grabbing Financial exploitation by moneylenders and merchants .
• In 1899, the Munda tribe started an armed rebellion against the British.
• Many Munda tribesmen were killed in the police firing in Ranchi.
• Birsa Munda was imprisoned and died .
• The Munda Rebellion was brutally suppressed by the British.
• Kurichiya Rebellion, Pahariya Rebellion, Kol Rebellion, Bhil Rebellion and Khasi Rebellion took place in different parts of India against the British 16.The policies of the British also affected the Poligars, the military leaders of Tamil Nadu.Explain?

➢ Veerapandya Kattabomman, a poligar of Panchalam Kurichi and Marut Pandya brothers, poligars of Sivagangai played an important role .
➢ The poligar was responsible for collecting taxes from the people.
➢ The ruler of Panchalam Kurichi surrendered to the British, but Kattabomman was not willing to do so.
➢ The British increased the existing taxes.
➢ Kattabomman questioned the tax collection by the British They fought against the British and died as heroes.

17.Give a brief account on the Attingal Revolt of 1721

⍟ It is the first organised rebellion against the British in India.
⍟The British were constantly trying to create chaos in the Attingal region.
⍟ The British tried to repeat the practice of giving rewards to the ruling Attingal Rani every new year.
⍟ But some of the landlords resisted this .
⍟ A British contingent of one hundred and forty led by Gifford arrived to give gifts to the Attingal Rani, despite the opinion that was sufficient to give gifts only through the landlords.
⍟ The contingent was attacked and killed by the locals without any distinction of class, colour, caste and religion.
⍟ Moreover, the British fort at Anchuthengu was surrounded and blockaded.

18.Write a short note on Ressistance of Rani Chennamma

Kittur recognised the supremacy of the Maratha rule.
When the British won the Third Anglo-Maratha War, the Kittur area came under the control of the English East India Company.
The ruler of Kittur was Sivalinga Rudradesai.
After his death, Chennamma, his widow, decided to adopt a boy.
This was prevented by the Company which annexed Kittur to British India.
Provoked by this, Rani Chennamma of Kittoor declared war against the British.
Rani Chennamma died in 1829 while in British custody

STD VII SURE A PLUS NOTES

Downloaded From: https://textbooksall.blogspot.com/

19.Natives, peasants, artisans, native kings, soldiers, and landlords fought against the British in 1857,the factors that forced these different groups to participate in the rebellion?

* Administrative reforms implemented by the British .
* Dissatisfaction of the Indian soldiers .
* Rulers of princely states who had lost their powers.

20.Administrative reforms implemented by the British that led to the 1857 revolt. (First Term Exam)

The Subsidiary Alliance Policy (First Term Exam)	Doctrine of Lapse (First Term Exam)
$ It was implemented by lord Wellesley for the expansion of the British Empire in India and to strengthen its sovereignty. $ Those who signed it Should keep one unit of army of the company permanently within the kingdom. $ Expenses of this troops what to be born e by the king. $ The king cannot be enter into alliances with other European countries The king must consult governor general before taking an action. $ If these conditions were violated the princely states would be annexed by the British.	$ If a ruler of a princely state died without male heirs there was a practice of finding a boy from another family as the legal heir. $ The kings power to adopt was abolished under the doctrine of lapse enacted by Lord Dalhousie. $ In the absence of the heir the Princely state would fall under the control of the English east india company.

21.How did Dissatisfaction of the Indian soldiers of the East India Company become reason for the Revolt of 1857 (First Term Exam)

Or Did the use of new Enfield rifles hurt the religious beliefs of Indian soldiers? Explain on the basis of the causes of the Revolt of 1857. (First Term Model Qn Paper)

•Indian soldiers were paid less and were provided poor food and accommodation.
•The company supplied the new type of Enfield guns to the soldiers.
•Its cartridges had a greased paper cover.
•This cover had to be bitten off to use the gun.
•It was rumoured among the soldiers that this cover was smeared with a type of grease made from cow and pig fat, which was offensive to their religious beliefs.
•Mangal Pandey, a soldier at Barrackpore, was the first to protest against this.

22.Write down the results of the1857 revolt

➢ Many Indians were shot dead.
➢Many were cannoned to death.
➢Thousands who were alive were hanged upside down from branches of trees.
➢ Out of the one and a half-lakh killed in the riots in Oudh alone .
➢One lakh were civilians.

23.Though the revolt of 1857 was suppressed by the British, it had a significant impact on later Indian history. Explain what are they. (Third Term Model Qn Paper)

STD VII SURE A PLUS NOTES

Downloaded From: https://textbooksall.blogspot.com/

⊙ The English East India Company rule ended in India .
⊙ India came under the direct control of the British queen .
⊙ The position of governor general was replaced by viceroy.
⊙ It inspired India's later National movement

24.List the limitations of the rebellion of 1857

The rebellion was confined a few parts of Northern India.
Had no organised the leadership.
The company army hard more improvised military and organisational skills than the mutineers.
The middle class in India generally did not support the rebellion.

25.Leaders of 1857 revolt (First Term Exam) (Second Term Exam)

Leaders	Centres
Bahadur Shah II,General Bakht Khan	Delhi
Rani Lakshmibai	Jhansi
Begum Hazrat Mahal	Lucknow
Kunwar Singh	Ara in Bihar
Tantia Tope,Nana Sahib	Kanpur

All the Very Best Dear Students

Prepared by

VIMAL VINCENT V HST GHSS North Paravur 9847452945

STD VIII SURE A PLUS NOTES