Downloaded From: https://textbooksall.blogspot.com/

STD VIII SOCIAL SCIENCE

SURE A GRADE NOTES

National Movement and Kerala

The Trumpet Sounds for the Preparation of War

1.Prepare a short essay on Pazhassi revolt

₹ Pazhassi Raja, a member of the Kottayam royal family in Northern Malabar, initially aided the British against the Mysore rulers.

₹ In exchange, he was promised the power to collect taxes in his region. However, after Malabar came under the control of the English East India Company via the Treaty of Srirangapatnam, the situation changed.

₹The British reneged on their promise and handed the tax collection authority in Kottayam to Pazhassi's loyal uncle, Veera Varma, the Kurumbranadu king.

₹Protesting this act of neglect and broken agreement, Pazhassi Raja urged his people not to pay taxes to the new British-backed collectors.

₹This direct defiance over the right to revenue collection marked the beginning of the conflict between Pazhassi Raja and the British.

2.what are the defensive strategies Pazhassi adopted against the English East India Company.

* The base was shifted to Wayanad
* The local people were added
* Guerrilla warfare was waged

3.Name the leaders who gave support to Pazhassi.

• Kurichya leader Thalakkal Chandu, Nair Chief Edachena Kunkan, Kaitheri Ambu, Kannavath Sankaran, and Pallur Eman provided strong military support to Pazhassi.

4."The British realised that it would not be easy to defeat Pazhassi, who had put up a strong defence with the support of the people in Wayanad " Examine

$ They took various measures against him.

$ Military camps were set up at strategic places

$ New roads were built l Rice supply to Wayanad was cut off

$ A reward was announced for those who nab the participants in the rebellion.

5. When did Pazhassi attain a valiant death in an encounter with the Company's army in the year?

November 30, 1805 at Mavilamthode in Wayanad

6.Who was the Sub-Collector of Thalassery who killed the commanders who were the strength of Pazhassi, ?

@ Thomas Harvey Baber

7.The tomb of Pazhassi situates at ?

^ Mananthavady

The Dalawa Who Raised the Proclamation

8.Write a short note on Velu Thampi and his resistance against the British.

☞ Velu Thampi, the Dalawa (Prime Minister) of Travancore under Balarama Varma Maharaja, faced direct conflict with the British Resident, Macaulay, after a 1805 agreement ended Travancore's political freedom.

STD VIII SS SURE A GRADE NOTES

Downloaded From: https://textbooksall.blogspot.com/

☞ Macaulay, taking control of the administration, cancelled Velu Thampi's orders and demanded immediate payment of tax arrears owed to the English East India Company.

☞Facing similar pressure, Paliath Achan, the Prime Minister of Kochi, secretly allied with Velu Thampi.

☞Their combined forces of Travancore and Kochi launched a joint attack on Macaulay's camp in Kochi, but Macaulay managed to escape.

9.What do you mean by 'Kundara Proclamation.'

¢ On 11 January 1809, Velu Thampi issued a proclamation at Kundara in Travancore, calling on the people to prepare for an armed struggle against the British dominance.

¢ This proclamation is known as the 'Kundara Proclamation.'

10. Briefly explain the key events and ultimate fate of Velu Thampi Dalawa after his conflict with the British escalated and he lost the Travancore King's approval?

✪ Although the Travancore king did not approve of such actions of Dalawa, Velu Thampi continued to fight against the British with the support of the locals.
✪ The defeat by the company's army and the withdrawal of his ally Paliath Achan from the alliance were major setbacks for the Dalawa.
✪ The king removed him from the position of Dalawa.
✪ When the joint army of Travancore and the company surrounded the house at Mannadi, where Velu Thampi had sought refuge, he committed suicide instead of surrendering to the foreign power.

Paliath Achan and Kochi

11.Examine what circumstances prompted Paliath Achan to fight against the British.

◎ Paliath Achan, the Prime Minister of Kochi, with Travancore had opposed the interference of the British Resident Macaulay in the internal affairs of Kochi.
◎Besides, Macaulay gave shelter to an enemy of Paliath Achan which worsened the situation.
◎Then Paliath Achan joined hands with Velu Thampi, and launched a struggle against the British. Although he resisted the British strongly, he was eventually exiled to Madras by the British.

Kurichyar Rebellion - A Heroic Story of Resistance

12.Give a brief account on Kurichyar Rebellion

₩ The Kurichyar and Kurumbrar are tribal groups in Wayanad. The British considered them enemies after they supported Pazhassi in this rebellion.
₩ The measures taken by the British against the Kurichyar and Kurumbrar were
₩ The tribal people's tracts of land were seized
₩ They were not allowed to continue their traditional methods of farming* The British demanded money instead of goods as tax.

STD VIII SS SURE A GRADE NOTES

Downloaded From: https://textbooksall.blogspot.com/

₩ The Kurichyar rebellion began in 1812.

₩ The tribal people fought against the British by taking control of the routes to Wayanad and by gaining local support

₩ Rama Nambi or Rama Mooppan was their leader. They directly attacked the British army stationed at Sultan Bathery and Mananthavady.

₩ But it was suppressed

Peasant Discontent - Leads to Rebellion

13.Why did the farmers protest against the landlords and the British government?

€ There was protest and violence by farmers against the exploitative landlords and the British government.

€ Since most of the participants were Mappila farmers of South Malabar, the British authorities and imperial historians referred to these uprisings as the 'Mappila riots.'

€ British government's tax policies, exploitation and eviction of landlords were the causes of these riots

Social Reform Movements

14.Write a note on Social Reform Movements

£ It was a society where superstitions and customs were widespread.

£ A person's social status was determined by the caste in which he was born.

£As part of caste discrimination, many social evils such as untouchability, unapproachability and travel bans existed in Kerala.

£ It aimed the equality and equity.

15.Compelte the table on Social Reformers and Their Main Activities

Social Reformers	Main Activities
Vaikunta Swamikal	He performed first kannadi prathishta in south india by exposing irrationality of idol workship
Sree Narayana Guru	He was the foremost reformer who worked for social change in Kerala. He fought against superstitions and caste discrimination.He Sree Narayana Guru proclaimed, 'become enlightened through knowledge.' 'become enlightened through knowledge.' He performed 'Shiva prathishta' at Aruvippuram and described this temple : " It is a model place where people live without caste disparity or religious aversion, but with fraternity". His visions influenced reformers ike Sahodaran Ayyappan, Mahakavi and Kumaranasan, Dr. P. Palpu T. K. Madhavan. Movement: Sree Narayana Dharma Paripalana Yogam
Kuriakose Elias Chavara	He was a social reformer and educational activist.He established orphanages and underprivileged.
Chattampi Swamikal	Opposed the caste system and irrational customs. His writings were valuable contributions to the Malayalam language and literature

STD VIII SSURE A GRADE NOTES

Downloaded From: https://textbooksall.blogspot.com/

Ayyankali	Fought for the rights, self-respect, freedom of travelling and education of the oppressed sections of society. The Villuvandi strike and the Kallumala strike were important strikes led by him. Movement: Sadhujana Paripalana Sangham
Vakkom Abdul Khader Moulavi	Worked for the cultural renaissance of the Muslim community. He Vakkom Started the Swadeshabhimani newspaper to expose the vanity of the monarchy. Movement: Travancore Muslim Mahajana Sabha
Mannath Padmanabhan	Worked for social and educational progress of the Nair community. He led the struggles to achieve civil rights in Kerala. Movement: Nair Service Society
Poikayil Yohannan	Fought against social evils like casteism and slavery. Movement: Pratyaksha Raksha Daiva Sabha
V. T. Bhattathiripad	He was known as a reformer of the Namboodiri community, social worker and writer. He wrote the famous play Adukkalayil Ninnu Arangathekku. Movement: Yogakshema Sabha
Pandit K. P. Karuppan	A poet and playwright, he worked for the upliftment of the backward classes. Movement: Araya Samajam
Vagbhatananda	Promoted critical thinking based on logic. Tried to reform customs according to the changing times.

Struggles for Civil Liberty

16.Prepare a note discussing the social situation that led to the struggle for the right to wear upper cloth.

§ The women of the Channar community of South Travancore did not have the right to wear upper cloth .

§ The Channar women, who appeared in public places wearing upper cloth with the support of Christian missionaries, were attacked by those who were considered to be the upper caste and their upper cloth was torn off.

§ Subsequently, riots broke out in many places in Southern Travancore.

§ On July 26, 1859, the Maharaja of Travancore issued a decree removing restrictions on Channar women to wear upper cloth.

17.Prepare a newspaper report related to the Vaikom Satyagraha.

® The Vaikom Satyagraha was a major struggle for the freedom of travelling that took place in Kerala when the national movement was gaining strength.

® The people who were considered inferior were not allowed to walk on the approach roads of Vaikom temple.

STD VII SS SURE A GRADE NOTES

Downloaded From: https://textbooksall.blogspot.com/

® The satyagraha began on March 30, 1924, in protest against this discrimination.
® This satyagraha was led by T. K. Madhavan, K. Kelappan, K. P. Kesava Menon and others.
® The Vaikom Satyagraha, which attracted national attention, ended with the mediation of Mahatma Gandhi.
® On November 23, 1925, all the roads on all three sides of the temple were opened to all Hindus.

18.How did all sections of Hindus be allow to enter the Guruvayur temple?

➢ A movement that demanded all sections of Hindus be allowed to enter the Guruvayur temple.
➢ The Satyagraha began on 1 November 1931 with the formation of a committee under the leadership of K. Kelappan and Mannath Padmanabhan.
➢ When the protest intensified, the authorities were forced to close the temple. The volunteer captains of the movement, A. K. Gopalan and P. Krishna Pillai, were brutally beaten by opponents of the Satyagraha.
➢ When K. Kelappan began a 'fast unto death' in front of the temple, many people came from different places to support it.
➢ Finally, the fast was ended on the instructions of Gandhiji.
➢ When the Congress held a plebiscite in Ponnani taluk to ascertain public opinion about the temple entry, the majority of the people supported it.
➢ In this way, the Guruvayur Satyagraha helped to create a favourable atmosphere for the entry of all sections of Hindus to the temple

19.Give an account on Paliyam Satyagraha

⁂ The Paliyam Satyagraha of 1947-48 was another protest in Kerala for the abolition of untouchability.

⁂ The marginalised sections of the people were prohibited from walking on the road in front of the residence of Paliath Achan at Chennamangalam in Kochi.

⁂ The Palyiam Satyagraha was organised by political parties and community organisations in protest against this injustice.

⁂ The government responded with arrests and torture to suppress the satyagraha led by C. Kesavan and others.

⁂ In 1948, when all the temples in Kochi were opened to everyone regardless of caste.

The Flame of Protest of National Consciousness

20.The national movement was more active in Malabar than in other parts of Kerala. Evaluate ⌘ Formation of the Malabar District Congress Committee and the activities of the Home Rule League propelled the national movement forward.

⌘ The Khilafat and Non-Cooperation Movements received strong support. As part of the struggle, people boycotted foreign-made goods, courts, schools and other government institutions.

STD VII SS SURE A GRADE NOTES

Downloaded From: https://textbooksall.blogspot.com/

⌘ The strike witnessed active participation of women and students.

⌘ The prominent leaders during the time were C. Kunhirama Menon, K. Kelappan, U. Gopala Menon, K. P. Kesava Menon, Muhammed Abdur Rahiman Sahib, E. Moidu Moulavi and Moyarath Sankaran.

⌘ Impact of Salt satyagraha was also felt in Kerala.

⌘ The centre of the Salt Satyagraha in Kerala was Payyannur in Malabar. The satyagraha was led by K. Kelappan.

21.What do you mean by Malabar Rebellion

e The Malabar Rebellion was an anti-British and anti-landlord movement in Malabar.

e When the tenant movement, which was already active in Malabar, was merged with the Non-Cooperation and Khilafat movements, it evolved into the Malabar Rebellion.

e In 1921, the rebellion spread to the taluks of Eranad, Valluvanad, and Ponnani.

e Many people, including landlords, government officials and rebellious peasants lost their lives.

e The British government suppressed the rebellion using the Malabar Special Police and the army.

eProminent among those who led the Malabar Rebellion were Ali Musliyar, Variyankunnath Kunjahammed Haji and M. P. Narayana Menon.

22.Malabar also centre of Quit India Movement. Prepare a brief description

? The Quit India Movement, which began across India on August 9, 1942, resulted in the arrest of prominent leaders, including Gandhiji.

? As a result, it became a violent movement unlike other Gandhian movements.

? The people of Kerala—including women and students—actively participated in the movement in Malabar, Kochi and Travancore regions.

? The Keezhariyur bomb case is a major incident that took place as part of this.

23.Briefly explain Political movements in Kochi

◊ Since the establishment of the British sovereignty in Kochi, which was a princely state, there had been popular protests against it.

◊ The initial protests were aimed at establishing good governance. Later, protests began to gain political rights.

24.Prepare a short note on Electricity Strike

^ The Diwan of Kochi, R. K. Shanmukham Chetty, decided to hand over the electricity supply of Thrissur to a private company.

^ In 1936, there was a popular uprising against the decision.

STD VII SS SURE A GRADE NOTES

Downloaded From: https://textbooksall.blogspot.com/

^ Although the government suppressed the protest, this strike helped mobilise people to the forefront of protest.

25.List the founders of Kochi Rajya Praja Mandal and its activities

> An organisation named Kochi Rajya Praja Mandal was formed in 1941 with the aim of achieving responsible government.

> Ikkanda Warrier, Panampilly Govinda Menon and V. R. Krishnan Ezhuthachan led the activities of the Praja Mandal.

> It was decided to hold a nationwide protest to achieve responsible government and 29 July 1946 was observed as "Responsible Government Day."

> Later, the Praja Mandal merged with the Indian National Congress.

> Ikkanda Warrier became the Prime Minister, and the first Congress ministry came to power in Kochi.

26.Substantaite the role of the Malayali Memorial and the Ezhava Memorial for awakening the political consciousness of the people in Travancore.

Malayali Memorial	Ezhava Memorial
* Demand for adequate representation of people of Travancore in government jobs in Travancore. * On 1 January 1891, a petition signed by the people was submitted to the Maharaja, stating this demand. Leadership - G. P. Pillai	* Demand for adequate representation of Ezhava community in government service on 3 September 1896, a petition signed by members of the Ezhava community was submitted to the Maharaja. Leadership - Dr. P. Palpu

27.What do you mean by Abstention Movement

⚹ The 1932 'Nivarthanam' or Abestention Movement was a powerful political agitation that took place in Travancore.

⚹ The Christian, Muslim, and Ezhava communities formed a political committee and led the movement jointly.

⚹ They demanded proportional representation in government jobs and in the Legislative Assembly. C. Kesavan, N. V. Joseph and P. K. Kunju led the movement.

⚹ The activities for responsible government in Travancore were carried out under the auspices of the Travancore State Congress.

⚹ Pattom Thanu Pillai was the first president of the Travancore State Congress.

⚹ They organised the agitation through petitions and direct action protests.

28.Give an account on Congress Socialist Party

☞ The Congress Socialist Party In 1934, Congress workers who were interested in socialist ideas, met at Kozhikode under the presidency of K. Kelappan.

☞ They decided to form a 'Congress Socialist Party' within the Indian National Congress. P. Krishna Pillai, E. M. Sankaran Namboothiripad and A. K. Gopalan led this faction.

☞ Several peasant struggles took place in Kerala under the leadership of the Congress Socialist Party.

29.Prepare a short note on role of women in freedom struggle Kerala

◊ When the national movement gained strength through protests such as Non-

STD VII SS SURE A GRADE NOTES

Downloaded From: https://textbooksall.blogspot.com/

Cooperation and Civil Disobedience, women in Kerala actively participated in the struggles.

◊ Embracing Gandhiji's message, women were active in salt production, boycotting foreign clothes, and weaving and wearing khadi clothes.

◊ During the struggle period, there was also notable participation of women in the activities of eradicating untouchability and uplifting Harijans.

◊ Many women were imprisoned as part of the struggles.

◊ During this period A. V. Kuttimalu Amma and Ammu Swaminathan in Malabar and Akkamma Cheriyan and Annie Mascarene in Travancore led the national movement.

30.Examine the important events that led to the formation of an Aikya Kerala.

¤ The Aikya Kerala movement for a unified Malayalam-speaking state gained momentum starting with the 1921 All Kerala Provincial Conference at Ottapalam, attended by representatives from Malabar, Kochi, and Travancore.

¤ A key demand came in 1928 at the Payyannur Congress Conference, chaired by Jawaharlal Nehru, which called for Kerala's reorganization as a separate state in independent India.

¤ Progress toward this goal included the formation of Thiru-Kochi by merging Travancore and Kochi on July 1, 1949.

¤ Finally, based on the linguistic reorganization recommendations of the Fazal Ali Commission, the state of Kerala was formed on November 1, 1956, by merging Malabar and Thiru-Kochi.

¤ The reorganization also involved ceding the Travancore taluks of Thovala, Agastheeswaram, Kalkulam, and Vilavancode to Madras State (now Tamil Nadu) and adding the Kasaragod taluk from South Karnataka to Kerala.

All the Very Best Dear Students

VIMAL VINCENT V HST, GHSS North Paravur 9847452945

STD VIII SS SURE A GRADE NOTES