STD 8 SOCIAL SCIENCE

SURE A PLUS NOTES

Towards the Emergence of the National Movement

1.Discuss the economic policies / economic exploitation implemented by the British in India and their consequences (First Term Exam)

➢ The British transformed India into a colony for raw material collection and a market for their goods, aiming for economic exploitation.

➢ This policy resulted in widespread unemployment and poverty, prompting diverse groups, including farmers, artisans, small traders, and tribal communities, to rebel against British rule.

2.Who conducted the detailed studies about the economic exploitation by the British.

⊙ Dadabhai Naoroji, R. C. Dutt, and Mahadev Govind Ranade carried out detailed studies about the economic exploitation by the British.

⊙ They were the early leaders of the Indian National Movement.

3.Elucidate the role of Western eduction in fostering nationalism (First Term Exam)

The British introduced modern English education in India in the 19th century to assert their cultural superiority and create a compliant class.

#Educated Indians gained exposure to Western ideals like democracy,freedom,egalitarianism,civil rights etc .

This newfound awareness led them to question British rule and sparked discussions about ending it.

English also facilitated communication among diverse regional groups.

#Western education helped Indians understand their nation's economic and social shortcomings.

4. Literature played the crucial role in fostering nationalism & patriotism.Substantiate the statement

$ Literature and newspapers significantly fueled Indian nationalism by reflecting the suffering, neglect, and exploitation under British rule.

$ Prominent writers like Dinabandhu Mitra, Bankim Chandra Chatterjee, Rabindranath Tagore, Vallathol Narayana Menon, and Subramania Bharati used their works to highlight these issues and instill patriotic sentiments.

5.Tabulate the Major national literary figures and their Language

Bankim Chandra Chatterjee Rabindranath Tagore	Bengali
Lakshminath Bezbaruah	Assamese
Subramania Bharati	Marathi
Bharatendu Harishchandra	Tamil
Premchand	Hindi

STD VIII SURE A PLUS NOTES

Altaf Hussain Hali	Urdu
Vallathol Narayana Menon	Malayalam

6.Analyse the decisive role played by the newspapers in the development of modern ideas and nationalism.

• Newspapers, in both English and regional languages, became vital platforms for spreading nationalism.

•Pioneered by Raja Ram Mohan Roy with Sambad Kaumudi (Bengali) and Mirat ul-Akbar (Persian)

•These publications enabled criticism of British policies and fostered a critical awareness against exploitation.

• Thereby playing a crucial role in developing modern ideas and nationalistic sentiment.

7. Tabulate the important newspapers which played a pivotal role in the development of modern ideas and nationalism.

News Paper	Language
Amrita Bazar Patrika	Bengali
The Hindu The Times of India	English
Mathrubhumi Al Ameen	Malayalam

8.Prepare a short note on the role of Raja Ram Mohan Roy in social reforms in India (First Term Exam)

>He initiated social reforms in India.

> He had profound knowledge in Hinduism Islam Christian and Judaism.

> He was influenced by French revolution.

> He played a crucial role in abolishing sati through Brahma Samaj.started many modern Schools.

> Stood against Idolatry polytheism, polygamy,child marriage etc

9.Elucidate the Social reform activities of Jyotirao Phule

> Known as 'Mahatma' in Maharashtra, worked the rights of lower castes and women.

> He established the Satyashodhak Samaj to promote social reform, advocating for widow remarriage and safeguarding children of widows.

> Phule also founded numerous educational institutions for women and Dalits.

> His wife, Savitribai Phule, established girls' schools and night schools to advance education for women.

10.Explain the role of Pandita Ramabai in social reforms in India (First Term Exam)

*A Sanskrit scholar from Karnataka, was a leading social reformer advocating for women's rights.

* She actively fought against child marriage .

* Established the Arya Mahila Samaj to promote education for widows and girls.

STD VII SURE A PLUS NOTES

* Her initiatives included Sharada Sadan , a shelter for widow rehabilitation, and Mukti Mission, which offered vocational training for women.
* She also participated in the 1889 Indian National Congress session in Bombay.

11.Tabulate the Social reform movements and Founders

Prarthana Samaj	Atmaram Pandurang
Arya Samaj	Swami Dayananda Saraswati
Aligarh Movement	Sir Syed Ahmad Khan
Theosophical Society	Madame Blavatsky, Colonel Olcott
Ramakrishna Mission	Swami Vivekananda
Hitakarini Samaj	Veeresalingam Pantulu
Swabhimana Prasthanam	E. V. Ramasamy Naicker
Sree Narayana Dharma Paripalana Yogam	Sree Narayana Guru
Sadhujana Paripalana Sangham	Ayyankali

12.How Transport and Communication played role in fostering nationalism

➢ The British developed transport (railways, improved roads) and communication (postal, telegraph) networks in India for trade, industrial, and military advantages.

➢ It fostered a sense of unity among Indians by enabling easier travel and communication across diverse regions.

➢ This interconnectedness, combined with a unified administrative, legal, and currency system, significantly contributed to the emergence and strengthening of Indian nationalism.

13.Tabulate the formation of Political Organisations

Early political movements	Centre of activity	National leaders who led the movements
Indian Association	Calcutta	Surendranath Banerjee, Ananda Mohan Bose
Madras Mahajan Sabha	Madras	M. Veeraraghavachariar, G. Subramania Iyer, Ananda Charlu
Bombay Presidency Association	Bombay	Pherozeshah Mehta, K. T. Telang, Badruddin Tyabji

14.Discuss and list the limitations of early political movements.

◎ These organisations were not an all India by nature.

◎ Their activities were confined to certain provinces and territories.

◎ Such organisations led by the rich and the middle class failed to create awareness among the masses politically.

◎ In this context, the need to form an all-India organisation was strengthened.

15.Prepare a short essay on formation of the Indian National Congress

STD VIII SURE A+ US NOTES

• On December 28, 1885, seventy-two representatives from various Indian organizations convened at Gokuldas Tejpal Sanskrit College in Bombay.

• These diverse individuals, despite differences in language, religion, and social standing, gathered for a meeting presided over by W. C. Banerjee and organized in part by Englishman Allan Octavian Hume.

16.What are the declared objectives of the Indian National Congress

$ Foster the friendly relationship among political activists

$ Foster and strengthen sense of national unity irrespective of caster religion and province.

$Formulate and give shape to common needs and Present them to the British government.

$ Form a public opinion and organise people in the Country.

$ Allow centres in India for All India Competitive Examinations as well.

17.Name the important leaders of Indian National Congress

@ Dadabhai Naoroji,Surendranath Banerjee, Pherozshah Mehta, Badruddin Tyabji, Gopalakrishna Gokhale, Balagangadhara Tilak, P. Ananda Charlu, R. C. Dutt and Ananda Mohan Bose.

18.Give an account on Partition of Bengal (First Term Exam)

To weaken the growing Congress-led nationalist movement, particularly in its stronghold of Bengal, British Viceroy Lord Curzon Partitioned Bengal in 1905.

He justified this as necessary for efficient administration due to Bengal's vast size.

19.Patriotic song 'Amar Sonar Bangla' composed by ?

* Rabindranath Tagore.

20. In which year partition of Bengal was effected on

> October 16, 1905

19.How did Partition of Bengal strengthen Swadeshi Movement (First Term Exam)

< The protests against British policies escalated into the "Swadeshi Movement," significantly energizing the Indian National Movement.

< Centered on the concept of "self-reliance".

< Its primary strategy involved promoting Indian-made goods while boycotting British products to boost indigenous industries and cut off trade revenue for the colonial government.

20.List some of the industries and establishments that emerged in India as a direct result of the Swadeshi Movement.

➢The Swadeshi Movement inspired the establishment of numerous Indian enterprises, including textile mills, soap and match factories, handloom units, national banks, and insurance companies.

➢ Notable examples include Acharya P. C. Roy's Bengal Chemical Store

➢ Rabindranath Tagore's Swadeshi Store

➢ V. Chidambaram Pillai's Swadeshi Steem Navigation Company

➢ Jamshedji Tata's Steel Factory .

21.Analyse the influence of the Swadeshi Movement in the Indian freedom struggle?

$ The common people, women, and students of India besome participants in a political movement for the first time.

$ This movement influenced in the fields of culture education and economy.

$ This moment was able to spread the Indian freedom movement at the national level and contribute the Swadeshi as a new way of freedom struggle.

STD VIII SURE A PLUS NOTES

$ It brought the national struggle closer to the common people.

22.Compare the Moderate and Extremist leaders of Indian National Congress and their way of struggle

⊙ The Indian National Congress saw a divergence in its approach to challenging British rule.

⊙ The "Moderates," including Pherozshah Mehta, Gopalakrishna Gokhale, and Dadabhai Naoroji, favored peaceful methods like meetings, speeches, and resolutions.

⊙ In contrast, the "Extremists," led by Bal Gangadhara Tilak, Bipin Chandra Pal, and Lala Lajpat Rai, grew dissatisfied with this cautious stance.

⊙ They advocated for revolutionary actions like swadeshi and boycott, believing that freedom required strong, open struggle.

23.Prepare a short note on Surat split in Indian National Congress-

• The acute ideological differences within the Indian National Congress culminated in a split at the Surat conference in 1907, rendering further proceedings impossible.

• The British adeptly exploited this division, implementing their "divide and rule" policy more effectively.

• They responded with severe repression against the Extremists, arresting and jailing their leaders, exiling figures like Balagangadhara Tilak, and causing many to withdraw from politics.

24.Mention the important provisions of the Minto-Morley reforms of 1909.- (Second Term Exam)

@ The British implemented some administrative reforms to mitigate popular anger and influence moderates in Congress.

@ These reforms primarily featured the establishment of separate constituencies for Muslims and an expansion of the legislatures' functions and powers.

25.Exlpain the role of triumvirate Lal-Bal-Pal

Lala Lajpat Rai, Bal Gangadhara Tilak and Bipin Chandra Pal were extremist leaders

Who emphasised the need to end British rule by giving more strength to the Swadeshi movement.

These leaders are collectively known as Lal-Bal-Pal.

26.”Home Rule League gave new vigour to freedom struggle”, Substantiate the statement and give your conclusions

$ During World War I, political activity in India revived with the emergence of the Home Rule League, led by Annie Besant and Bal Gangadhara Tilak .

$ This organization aimed for "Home Rule" or "Self-Government," gaining widespread support in both urban and rural areas.

$ Besant and Tilak extensively campaigned and established numerous branches across the country.

$ Recognizing the threat to British supremacy, the government arrested Besant.

$ But her subsequent release and election as the first woman President of the Indian National Congress at the 1917 Calcutta Conference further galvanized the movement.

27.Elucidate the importance of annual conference of the Congress held in Lucknow in 1916 (Second Term Exam)

< The 1916 Lucknow Congress conference was a pivotal event, where the Moderates and Extremists of the Indian National Congress reconciled.

STD VII SCIENCE APLUSNOTES

< Significantly, the Congress and the All India Muslim League agreed to collaborate, marking a rare instance of unity in the Indian nationalist movement

28.Tabulate the Revolutionary organisations formed and used alternative Means of struggle

* In contrast to the Indian National Congress' method of struggle, some formed secret revolutionary organisations and resorted to armed struggle. They believed that the Western empire could only be overthrown through violence.

Revolutionary organisations	Place	Leadership
Anusheelan Samiti	Bengal	Sachindra Nath Sanyal, Aurobindo Ghosh
Bharat Mata Association	Madras	Neelakanta Brahmachari, Vanchi Iyer, Ajit Singh
Yugantar Party	Bengal	Rash Behari Bose, Khudiram Bose
Ghadar party	America	Lala Hardayal

29.The Play Nil Darpan written by ?

> Bengali literary and social reformer Dinabandhu Mitra.

30.Poverty and Un-British Rule in India is a book by ?

< Dadabhai Naoroji

31.'Who is known as Grand Old Man of India' ? @ Dadabhai Naoroji

32.Drain theory prpounded by

Dadabhai Naoroji

STD VIII SURE A PLUS NOTES

All the Very Best Dear Students

Prepared by

VIMAL VINCENT V HST GHSS North Paravur 9847452945