HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

SUMMATIVE ASSESSMENT-II-2025-2026- E 8001(17/12/2025)

Std: 8 Medium: English Total score: 15

SHINU R. HS PHYSICAL EDUCATION TEACHER. GHS MUDAPPALLUR, PALAKKAD

Q NO	ANSWERS	MARK
1	C (A-2 B-3 C-4 D- 1)	1
2	MUSCULAR ENDURANCE	1
3	Resistance training, Circuit training , Plyometric training,weight training	2
4	A = Airway, B = Breathing, C = Circulation	2
5	i- KNOCK KNEE ii- BOW LEGS	2
6	• Prevent movement of the fractured area. • Apply an ice pack wrapped in a cloth or plastic bag on the fractured area to reduce swelling. • Use a splint or sling to immobilise the area. • Provide medical assistance immediately.	2
7-A	• Cardiorespiratory endurance • muscle strength • Muscular endurance • flexibility • Body composition	2
7-B	Static Stretching • Upper back stretch • Shoulder stretch • Hamstring stretch Dynamic Stretching • Arm swing • Shoulder rotation • Leg swing	2
8-A	• Improves concentration. • Strengthens the muscles around the spine. • Stimulates abdominal organs. • Reduces anxiety and stress. • Enhances blood circulation. • Stimulates the bladder and kidneys.	3

8-B	• A normal foot has a slight arch (curve) on the inner side that helps distribute body weight evenly, reduce pressure, and maintain balance. However, individuals with flat foot have very low or no arch, causing the entire foot to touch the ground. Remedies of Flat Foot • Rolling a ball under the feet. • Standing on toes. • Walking on toes. • Using orthopaedic footwear with arch support. • Walk on sand to strengthen the arch muscles.	3

SHINU R. HS PHYSICAL EDUCATION TEACHER. GHS MUDAPPALLUR . PALAKKAD