SAMAGRA SHIKSHA KERALA

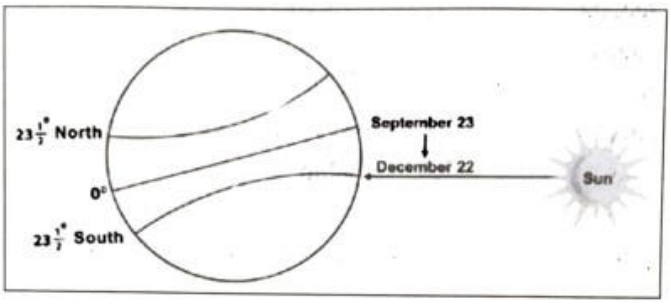

Summative Assessment - Term II

Social Science

Std VIII Answer Key Score 40

Answer the questions from 1 to 4. Each carries 1 score.
Qn No	Value points /Answers	Score
1	Identify the correct pairs related to the revolt of 1857 . D) a, b, d	1
2	Identify the iron and steel company which marked the beginning of modern Iron and Steel industry in India C) Tata lron and Steel Company	2
3	Which Constitutional Amendment reduced the voting age in India from 21 to 18 years? B) 6lst Constitutional Amendment	3
4	Arrange the items in column B appropriate to column A. C) a-iii, b-iv, c-ii. d-i	4
Answer the questions from 5 to 7 in two or more sentences. Each carries 2		3x2= 6
5	(A) Mention the important provisions of the Minto-Morley reforms of 1909. The British implemented some administrative reforms to mitigate popular anger and influence moderates in Congress.These reforms primarily featured the establishment of separate constituencies for Muslims and an expansion of the legislatures' functions and powers. Or (B) Elucidate the importance of annual conference of the Congress held in Lucknow in 1916 The 1916 Lucknow Congress conference was a pivotal event, where the Moderates and Extremists of the Indian National Congress reconciled, and significantly, the Congress and the All India Muslim League agreed to collaborate, marking a rare instance of unity in the Indian nationalist movement.	5

6	Which w as the committee appointed by the Central Government in 1976 to submit recommendations on the fundamental duties of citizens. Elucidate its importance. The Sardar Swaran Singh Committee was appointed by the Central Government in 1976 to submit recommendations on the fundamental duties of citizens. Article 51A of Part IVA. Deals with Fundamental Duties .It was included in the Constitution as part of the 42nd Constitutional Amendment in 1976. Now eleven duties embedded in the constitution.It protects the sovereignty, unity and integrity of India.It rememberes citizens not we have rights but also have duties.	6
7	Who developed the concept of' Creative Destruction" Explain the concept J. A. Schumpeter, a native of the Czech Republic, developed the concept of 'Creative Destruction.' Industries and technologies create new opportunities and growth through innovation. But he also opined that existing industries and technologies are disrupted or destroyed by innovation	7
Answer the questions from 8 to 11 in three or more sentences. Each carries 3 score. (4 x 3 = 12)
8	The Vaikom Satyagraha was a major struggle for the freedom for travelling that took place in Kerala when the national movement was gaining strength. Substantiate the statement. The Vaikom Satyagraha was a major struggle for the freedom of travelling that took place in Kerala when the national movement was gaining strength. The people who were considered inferior were not allowed to walk on the approach roads of Vaikom temple. The satyagraha began on March 30, 1924, in protest against this discrimination. This satyagraha was led by T. K. Madhavan, K. Kelappan, K. P. Kesava Menon and others. The Vaikom Satyagraha, which attracted national attention, ended with the mediation of Mahatma Gandhi. On November 23, 1925, all the roads on all three sides of the temple were opened to all Hindus.	8
9	Complete the chart showing topographic divisions of Europe B. Central Uplands C. North European Plains D.Alpine Mountain system	9
10	What is sustainable development? Mention the ways to achieve sustainable development It aims to meet the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs Economic growth can be achieved through a balance between the welfare of the environment and the standard of living of the people	10

	Recycling reducing usage and reusing resources are ways to achieve sustainable development
11	(A)Answer the following questions by analysing the picture.  a. Name the latitudes between which the apparent position of the sun shifts from 23 September onwards. - Equator to Tropic of capricorn b. Explain Winter Solstice. 22nd December (Winter Solstice) Sun's apparent position shifts from the equator to the Tropic of Capricorn during the period from 23rd September to 22nd December. on 22nd December, the southern hemisphere experiences the longest day and the shortest night" (B) What is standard time? What is the need to calculate standard time in a country? The local time would be different at each longitude. It would create a lot of confusion. To overcome this crisis, based on an international understanding, countries have selected a longitude, which is a multiple of $7\frac{1}{2}^{0}$ longitude as Standard Meridian. The local time at this Standard Meridian is considered as the standard time of the country.	11
Answer the questions 12 and 13 in four or more sentences. Each carries 4 score. (2 x4 = 8)
12	Traditional and modern social media have become an integral part of the lives of modern people. Evaluate the statement by comparing traditional and modern media based on the given hints .Communication .Integration . Form Features / Traditional Media / Modern media Communication / one-way communication / two-way communication Form / physical form (newspaper,radio, television) / digital form (internet-enabled devices) Integration / Minimal integration of traditional media / Vastly superior and more complex integration capabilities	12
13	(A) As a nation, India is different from the nation- states of Europe. Elucidate Unlike the European nation-states based on "one culture, one	13 nation," India was founded by giving equal rights and importance to its vast religious, ethnic, and cultural diversities .To politically manage these differences, India adopted a federal system. The Constitution specifically provides protection for religious and linguistic minorities through Fundamental Rights, includes 22 languages in the 8th Schedule. (B) Parliamentary system and Presidential system are the two models of democratic governance. Give an account of the features of these models. $ Features of the Parliamentary System The executive branch is controlled by the legislature.The powers of the head of the state are nominal .The head of state is the King/Queen/President.The head of government is the Prime Minister. The Prime Minister is the leader of the party that has the majority in the legislature.The council of ministers , headed by the Prime Minister, is collectively responsible to the legislature $ Features of the Presidential System The executive branch and the legislature are separate.The President serves both as the head of state and the head of government. All executive powers are vested in the President.The President is directly elected by the people.The President is not accountable to the legislature.

Answer the questions 14 and 15 in detail. Each carries 5 score. (2x5= 10)
14	(A) National Movement was more active in Malabar than in other parts of Kerala. Explain. Formation of the Malabar District Congress Committee and the activities of the Home Rule League propelled the national movement forward. The Khilafat and Non-Cooperation Movements received strong support. As part of the struggle, people boycotted foreign-made goods, courts, schools and other government institutions. The strike witnessed active participation of women and students. The prominent leaders during the time were C. Kunhirama Menon, K. Kelappan, U. Gopala Menon,K. P. Kesava Menon, Muhammed Abdur Rahiman Sahib, E. Moidu Moulavi and Moyarath Sankaran. Impact of Salt satyagraha was also felt in Kerala. The centre of the Salt Satyagraha in Kerala was Payyannur in Malabar. The satyagraha was led by K. Kelappan. OR (B) In the modem view, justice means giving equal and due consideration to all individuals as human beings. Explain the three principles of justice based on the statement. Justice is one of the basic values of democracy. The concept of justice changes over time. In the modern view, justice means giving equal and due consideration to all individuals as human beings.	14

	Three Principles of Justice Recognition of Special Needs- As human beings, all individuals deserve equal rights and equal consideration No discrimination on the basis of class, caste, religion, gender, or race Proportionate Justice- Justice should be proportionate to the ability and contribution of each person. There is no injustice in treating each person separately according to their ability Recognition of Special Needs- In a society where inequality exists, the weaker section and the backward can enjoy equality only if special rights are granted. Methods such as reservation can be adopted to ensure equality
15	Even and though the industries contribute to economic growth in India, it also led to many social environmental problems. Based on the given hints critically evaluate the statement. Yes,Industries also led to many social environmental problems like e Various Types of Pollution,Resource Depletion,Regional inequality,Migration,Urbanisation. Resource Depletion - Unscientific use of resources in industries to increase production leads to resource depletion and environmental problems Examples include . deforestation loss of soil fertility and depletion of water and mineral resources Regional inequality - The unbalanced distribution of natural resources and inadequate basic facilities have resulted in a concentration of industrial development in certain regions Differences can be seen in the income and living standards of the . people in these areas This causes regional disparity in industrially backward areas .	15

Prepared By

VIMAL VINCENT V
HST GHSS North Paravur ,9847452945